Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty, under both the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) and the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth), to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive you duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something Where the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth) applies:

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may avoid the contract of insurance from its beginning.

Where the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) applies:

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Privacy

Our Privacy Policy describes how we collect, disclose, store and use personal information as well as how to access it, correct it or make a complaint. We use personal information to issue, administer and manage products and provide services. You can view our Privacy Policy at www.qbe.com.au/privacy, or to obtain a free copy phone us on 133 723 or ask one of our authorised representatives or service providers. We may share personal information with other QBE Group companies, our authorised representatives and service providers, each of which may be based outside of Australia.

By giving us personal information you consent to us collecting, disclosing, storing and using it in accordance with our Privacy Policy. If you give us someone else's personal information you confirm you've obtained their consent to do so.

If you don't provide all of the personal information we've requested, we may be unable to issue, administer or manage products or provide services..

Declaration and authorisation

Please remember we will treat a statement or claim or an act or omission by any one of the applicants as a statement or claim or an act or omission by all of the applicants.

1. I/we have received a copy of the QM3098 Combined Annual Cargo Policy.
2. I/we declare that all answers and statements made in the application are true, correct and complete in every respect.
3. I/we authorise QBE to give to and obtain from other insurers or insurance reference bureaus any information about this insurance or any other insurance of mine including this completed application and my insurance claims history.
