

QBE Management Liability Insurance

There's never been a more challenging time to run a business. We understand that keeping abreast of all the legislation, from employment law to work health and safety is demanding, regardless of the size of a business. And despite best intentions, compliance and legislative breaches can still happen.

That's where we can help.

QBE has upgraded our Management Liability product to better respond to the changing world and what this means to businesses' evolving risks today and into the future.

QBE's Management Liability Insurance provides the broad range of cover required by a business, which can also be tailored to suit your client's business needs and budget.

Did you know:

- The average business owner or director operates under numerous legal requirements, with over seven hundred state and federal statutes in Australia governing how a business is run. Many of these impacting directors personal liability.
- Unfair dismissal cases represented 40% of the Fair Work Commission case workload in the 2015-2016 year, with 66% of monetary settlement outcomes over $6000, and ranging to over $40,000 (Fair Work Commission Annual Report 2015-16).
- PWC's Global Economic Crime Survey 2016, reported that 52% of Australian respondents to their survey had experienced a form of economic crime.

Tailor a cover

Management liability cover is critical to every business's effective and functioning risk management strategy. It provides cover for personal liability, fines and penalties, employment practices claims and theft by employees or third parties.

Comprehensive cover with a flexible format. We offer a full suite of covers which can be tailored to match specific risks.

Great claims service

Our professional claims team will help your clients navigate their way through what can be a stressful time and we provide access to our legal panel when they need professional and efficient advice relating to their policy coverage. They can also appoint these panel members to represent them in the event of a claim without any prior approval.

As a policyholder of QBE, your client can expect consistently good service and proactive case management.

Why QBE?

At QBE Insurance we understand the complexities of running a business, regardless of its size. We also know the exposure to liability claims this brings company directors, officers and managers. That's why through our global experience, coupled with local passion and commitment, we can help your client make brave decisions and do their job with confidence - knowing that if something goes wrong, we've got their back.

Want to know more?

For more information please contact your QBE representative or visit our website www.qbe.com.au/managementliability.