You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

Claims made – Section A

Section A of this Policy operates on a 'Claims made and notified' basis. This means that the Policy covers you for Claims made against you and notified to us during the period of insurance.

Other than coverage afforded under Clause 1.7 of the Policy 'Continuous cover' and coverage afforded pursuant to the extended notification period, the Policy does not provide cover in relation to:

- acts, errors or omissions actually or allegedly committed prior to the retroactive date of the Policy (if a date is specified)
- Claims made after the expiry of the period of insurance even though the event giving rise to the Claim may have occurred during the period of insurance
- Claims notified or arising out of facts or circumstances notified (or which ought reasonably to have been notified) under any previous Policy
- Claims made, threatened or intimated against you prior to the commencement of the period of insurance
- facts or circumstances of which you first became aware prior to the period of insurance, and which you knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a Claim under this Policy
- Claims arising out of circumstances noted on the proposal form for the current period of insurance or on any previous proposal form.

Where you give notice in writing to us of any facts that might give rise to a Claim against you as soon as reasonably practicable after you become aware of those facts but before the expiry of the period of insurance, you may have rights under Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to be indemnified in respect of any Claim subsequently made against you arising from those facts notwithstanding that the Claim is made after the expiry of the period of insurance. Any such rights arising under the legislation only. The terms of the Policy and the effect of the Policy is that you are not covered for Claims made against you after the expiry of the period of insurance, except to the extent of coverage afforded pursuant to the extended notification period.

Policy terms and conditions for information and communication technology liability insurance Policy

Preamble

In consideration of payment of the premium, we will provide indemnity in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Policy.

Section A: Errors and Omissions

Insuring clause A

1.1 Act, Error or Omission

We agree to indemnify you against legal liability for all Claims for direct or indirect economic loss suffered by a third party in respect of acts, errors or omissions (including any actual or alleged breach of contract by you) incurred in the provision of Information and Communication Technology which are:

- (a) first made against you during the period of insurance; and
- (b) notified to us during the period of insurance or where applicable, the extended notification period; and
- (c) not excluded under Section C (Exclusions).

1.2 Our duty to defend

In the event of a Claim against you to which insurance under Section A of this Policy applies, then we will defend in your name and on your behalf any such Claim even if the Claim is groundless, false or fraudulent (other than by or on behalf of you). We will investigate, negotiate and settle any such Claim as we see fit.

Insuring Clause B

1.3 Defence costs

In respect of a Claim, we agree to pay defence costs, in addition to the limit of indemnity (but only up to an amount equal to the limit of indemnity), provided always that if a payment in excess of the amount of indemnity available under this Policy is made to dispose of a Claim, our liability for such defence costs will be such proportion of those defence costs as the amount of indemnity available under this Policy bears to the amount paid to dispose of the Claim. We shall not be obliged to defend, or to continue to defend, any Claim or pay, or continue to pay, any defence costs associated with such defence, once the limit of indemnity has been exhausted.

1.4 Retroactive date

Where a retroactive date is specified in the Policy Schedule, then this Policy will only provide cover in respect of acts, errors or omissions committed or alleged to have been committed after the retroactive date.

1.5 Limit of indemnity

- (a) Our total liability under this Policy section for any one Claim, will not exceed the limit of indemnity specified in the Policy Schedule, and our total liability in the aggregate in respect of all Claims, during the period of insurance, will not exceed the aggregate limit of liability specified in the Policy Schedule. Under no circumstances will any Claim give rise to indemnity under both Section A and Section B of this Policy.
- (b) This clause does not increase any sub-limit in the Policy.

1.6 Multiple claims

- (a) All causally connected or interrelated acts, errors or omissions will jointly constitute a single act, error or omission under this Policy.
- (b) Where a single act, error or omission gives rise to more than one Claim, all such Claims will jointly constitute one Claim under the Policy, and only one deductible or limit of indemnity will be applicable in respect of such Claim.

1.7 Continuous cover

In the absence of fraudulent non-disclosure, where a Claim that would have been covered under this Policy is excluded by exclusion 7.6 of this Policy (prior or pending) and you are precluded from claiming indemnity under your previous Professional Indemnity and / or Information and Communication Technology Liability insurance policy ("previous policy") then we agree to extend indemnity under Section A of this Policy to any Claim arising from or attributable to or in consequence of any fact or circumstance which could have been, but which was not, notified under the "previous policy". Provided that:

- (a) if the fact or circumstance had been notified under the "previous policy", you would have been entitled to indemnity under the "previous policy"; and
- (b) apart from our right to refuse indemnity due to:
 - (i) failure to disclose the fact or circumstance to us before this Policy was entered into; or
 - (ii) the application of exclusion 7.6; (prior or pending)

You would be entitled to indemnity under this Policy; if:

- (c) you have continued without interruption to be insured under a similar Professional Indemnity or Information and Communication Technology Liability insurance policy to the "previous policy" from the time when the fact or circumstance could have been notified under the "previous policy" until the time when the Claim, fact or circumstance is notified to us; and
- (d) our liability for the Claim shall not exceed the amount of indemnity which would have been available under the "previous policy", if the fact or circumstance had been notified under that "previous policy", or the relevant limit of indemnity under this Policy, whichever is the lesser.

We will pay the GST amount in addition to the limit of indemnity shown in the Policy Schedule.

Where the amount paid by us in respect of the Claim is less than the total amount of the Claim, we will only provide indemnity to you for the GST amount that relates to our proportion of your Claim. This means that in the event that the limit of indemnity is not sufficient to cover the total amount of the Claim, we will only provide indemnity to you for the GST that relates to your agreed payment under the Policy.

We will not indemnify you for any GST liability that arises due to your failure to notify us of your entitlement or correct entitlement to an input tax credit on the premium.
