

QBE Fleet Risk Management Solutions

Online driver training

QBE's online safe driving program has been developed for companies with fleet drivers. It has been designed as a stand-alone program or can be used in conjunction with existing driver training. The main topics cover a broad range of driving scenarios in an 'open book' learning environment

Key features

- 24/7 access
- Available at any location
- Test your knowledge as you go
- Instant feedback
- A cost effective driver education solution
- A core component of an overall risk management strategy
- All questions require interactive input from the participant
- Increased driver knowledge
- A better business understanding where training may need to be provided